Comparative analysis from April to May

| From April to May |                          |                   |                      |              |                 |                        |
|-------------------|--------------------------|-------------------|----------------------|--------------|-----------------|------------------------|
| Dirty Room | Staff Not Helpful | Disrespect | Dirty Toilets | Noise | Bed Bugs | Poor Facilities |
| 18                | 7                        | 2                 | 26                   | 18           | 2               | 25                     |
| 72                | 29                       | 5                 | 88                   | 41           | 6               | 71                     |

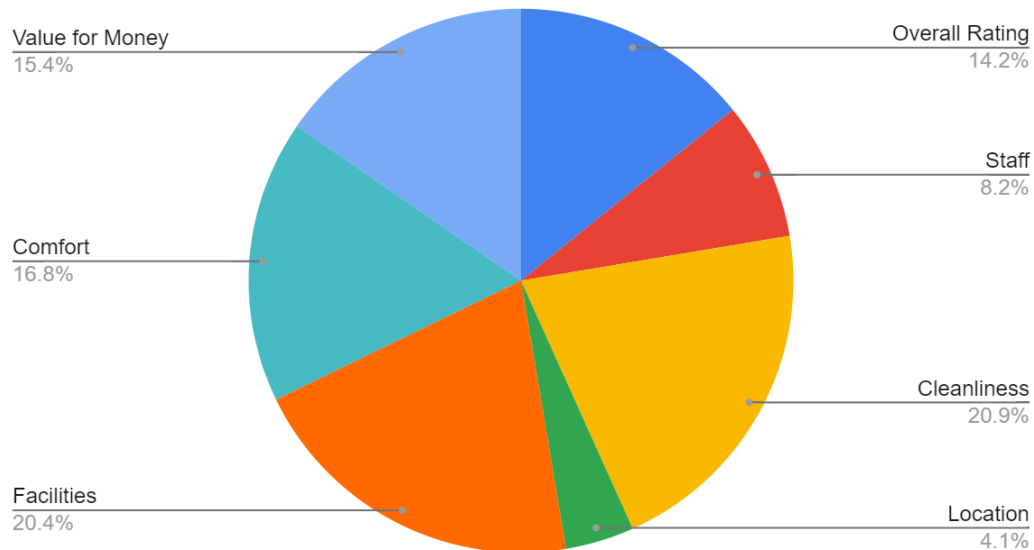

Given the proportion of total reviews, complaints about all above mentioned issues are increasing. This can be explained by the fact that we are hosting a significantly larger number of guests during the month of May, resulting in increased pressure and stress in managing the influx of reservations and daily operations. However, during such periods, it is crucial to enhance our efforts to satisfy guests as demand continues to rise.
